Dear Mam & Dad:

I'm sure you copied down all of this information correctly, but in case one of you forget to pick up the piece of paper by the phone:

MRS. Adelaide HARRIOTT was granted a Doctor of Laws (LL.D.) by York University in June, 1973, for her work in artistic and creative handcraft in Canada.

York grants several honorary degrees each year, from a long list of nominees. The receiver need not have any connection with York, or with the courses York offers. 8 such degrees will be given in 1974.

MARY HAMILTON asked Mrs. Marriott to work at Margaret Eaton as a dean. At the time when Mom was at M-E. Mrs. Marriott was beginning her work as chief organizer of the Canadian Guild of Crafts. Before her advent on the scene, no professional organization had been formed for Canadian Craftsmen, nor was there a central outlet. (The Guild is now located at 140 Cumberland - opposite Trade Winds).

Mrs. Marriott now lives at 195 Poplar Plains Road, Toronto and her Tel. is 923.1872. I spoke to her & found her very interested in Florence Sommers, & in your Reunion, and in hearing news of your reunion. She couldn't possibly attend, because this week is the annual Conference and Banquet of Canadian Craftsmen, held at York. (Incidentally, my friend Suss is preparing all the meals for all the ^{Special} guests - over 600 - for the entire ten days). But she just might appropriate one of your pottery mementos. She seemed to be a stern, strict but delightful person to me (on the phone).

Other news - our tomato plant got a real beating with the wind to-day, so we've tied him to his stake. Still blossoming. Our neighbour removed the large maple tree over our carport at back.

We've had a real clean-up at 7 Harvard - up to washing the light covers in the ceiling, and cleaning off the bar for the first time ever. We thought that Karen might spend a night with us this week, but it looks

Dear Patty —

What a pleasant surprise to receive a Christmas greeting from you & a picture of your delightful family. I would say you are a fortunate woman,
it was also interesting to me to hear where you live - I was born just outside Simcoe
I have a parchment given by Geo. III to my great grandfather for Crown Clergy of New Canada 1792. Name - Frederick Heath.
I still have a nephew - Harold Heath - who lives in the old Whiteside House in Delhi (his mother's home) - your husband may have met him as he has a departmental store in Tilsonburg. One son is an architect in Toronto. I see them all quite often.
Thank you again, Patty,
for thinking of me -

Most sincerely
Adele M. Marshall 2.2

P.S. I had a long letter from Miss Somerset last week.
She is well and happy

A. M.
